Ramabai Ranade

Ramabai Ranade (25 January 1862 – 25 January 1924) was an Indian social worker and one of the first women's rights activists in the early 20th century. Her life was marked by tireless efforts to empower women and promote education. Ramabai faced the prevailing taboo against educating girls. In 1884, Ramabai, along with her husband and colleagues, established one of India's first girls' high schools, Huzurpaga, in Pune.
